WRIT OF GARNISHMENT IT IS ORDERED:

TO THE PLAINTIFF: Have all copies of the Garnishee Disclosure (form MC 14), two copies of this writ, and the disclosure fee ($6 if the State of Michigan is the garnishee; $35 for all others) served on the garnishee within 182 days from the date of issue. If not properly served, the writ of garnishment is invalid. After receiving your first payment under the garnishment, provide the garnishee and defendant a statement of the balance remaining on the judgment, including interest and costs, at least once every 6 months. Within 21 days after the judgment has been paid, including all interest and costs, provide the garnishee and defendant a garnishment release (form MC 50).

TO THE DEFENDANT: See separate instructions. You have 14 days after this writ is mailed or delivered to you to file objections with the court. If you do not file objections within this time, periodic payments (money) owed to you by the garnishee may be withheld and paid directly to the plaintiff until the judgment is satisfied.

TO THE GARNISHEE:

1. Within 7 days after you are served with this writ, deliver a copy of this writ to the defendant in person or mail a copy to his or her last-known address by first-class mail.
2. Within 14 days after you are served with this writ, deliver or mail copies of your completed Garnishee Disclosure (form MC 14) to the court, plaintiff/attorney, and defendant. A default may be entered against you for failure to disclose.
3. Do not pay any obligations to the defendant unless allowed by statute or court rule.
4. If indebted to the defendant, withholding must begin according to court rule and continue until the judgment is satisfied. Unless notified that an objection has been filed, begin forwarding withheld payments 28 days after you are served with this writ.
5. Make all payments withheld under this writ payable and mailed as specified in the request.
6. Within 14 days after the judgment is satisfied or you are no longer obligated to make periodic payments to the defendant, file a final statement of the total amount paid on this writ with the court and mail or deliver copies to the plaintiff/attorney and defendant.
