Dear Customer:

Thank you for your order. Please inspect the contents carefully for damage. If a poster is damaged, please return it to us for a replacement, which will be provided immediately at no charge. Our posters are guaranteed, and if you are not satisfied for any reason, the posters may be returned to us for a full refund of the purchase price.

If you have multiple work sites, it may be necessary to have a separate set of posters for each location. Please call the number listed above to order additional sets or to obtain compliance assistance.

Very truly yours,

Management
