Employees’ Rights Under the District of Columbia

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT OF 1990

The District of Columbia Family and Medical Leave Act of 1990, D.C. Law 8-181, requires, effective April 1, 1991, all employers of 20 or more employees in the District of Columbia to provide up to 16 weeks of unpaid family leave:

- for the birth of a child, adoption or foster care
- to care for a seriously ill family member

And up to 16 weeks of unpaid medical leave:

- to recover from a serious illness rendering the employee unable to work for a total of 32 weeks during a 24-month period

During the period of leave, an employee shall not lose any employment benefits such as seniority or group health plan coverage.

The employer may require medical certification and reasonable prior notice when applicable.

The Act applies to employees who have worked for the employer for one year without a break in service and who have worked at least 1000 hours during the last 12 months. Employers may have leave policies which are more generous than those required by the Act.

A COMPLAINT CONCERNING A DENIAL OF RIGHTS UNDER THIS ACT MUST BE FILED WITHIN ONE YEAR OF THE OCCURRENCE OR DISCOVERY OF THE VIOLATION.

If you feel you have been discriminated against in any of the above areas you may elect to either go directly to the court to file a complaint within one year of the alleged discrimination or you may report the act within 180 days to your departmental EEO counselor who has 21 days to resolve the matter. If you are not satisfied with the results, you have 15 days to file a formal complaint with the EEO Director at the Office of Human Rights.

If you have any questions regarding this process you may contact the Intake Unit at the Office of Human Rights; Telephone number (202) 727-4559.

*Source of income and place of residence or business are not protected categories in employment.

PARENTAL LEAVE ACT OF 1994

In accordance with District of Columbia Law 10-146, effective August 17, 1994, an employee who is a parent shall be entitled to a total of 24 hours leave* during any 12 month period to attend or participate in school-related events for his or her child.

- “Parent” means natural mother or father of child;
- A person who has legal custody of a child;
- A person who acts as a guardian of a child regardless of legal appointment;
- An aunt, uncle, or grandparent of a child; or
- A person married to a person listed above.
- “School-related event” means an activity sponsored by either a school or an associated organization.

*The leave provided by this Act may consist of unpaid leave unless the parent elects to use any paid family, vacation, personal, compensatory, or leave bank leave that has been provided by the employer.

If you feel you have been discriminated against in any of the above areas you may elect to either go directly to the court to file a complaint within one year of the alleged discrimination or you may report the act within 180 days to your departmental EEO counselor who has 21 days to resolve the matter. If you are not satisfied with the results, you have 15 days to file a formal complaint with the EEO Director.

If you have any questions regarding this process you may contact the Intake Unit at the Office of Human Rights; Telephone number (202)727-4559.
