RE: The Mandatory Poster Agency, Inc.

Dear Mr. Bishop:

As you are aware, we act as the registered agent for the above referenced Foreign Corporation in the State of Texas. In that function, we receive legal and official corporate documents and correspondence on the company's behalf.

We have received the company's Notice of Intent to Forfeit. The State of Texas offers you the ability to pay the required fees online. Please review the enclosure to determine if this option is available to you.

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter. Please contact our office if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Registered Agents Legal Services, LLC

Texas Notice of Intent to Forfeit Right to Transact Business

Taxpayer name THE MANDATORY POSTER AGENCY, INC.		Date of notice 07/20/2018
		Taxpayer number 32058519391

Your entity's franchise tax account is not current. This may result in the forfeiture of the entity's right to transact business in Texas. This information will appear on the Comptroller's public website.

Problems with the account: Long Form, EZ, or No Tax Due Report, Not Filed
Complete, Signed Public Information Report, Form 05-102, Not Filed

REPORT YEAR: 2018 ANNUAL

For a detailed explanation of the problems with the account listed above, see "Franchise Tax Notices" at www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/franchise/notices.php.

Texas law requires the Comptroller to forfeit an entity's right to transact business in Texas if the entity does not file a missing franchise tax report form(s) or pay franchise tax or penalty due within 45 days of the date this notice is mailed. This notice is given in accordance with Texas Tax Code Sections 171.251, 171.2515 and 171.256. These provisions do not apply to banking corporations or savings and loan associations.

If you are a member of a combined group, you may be receiving this notice because the reporting entity for this group has failed to meet the franchise tax requirement shown above. All members of the combined group are subject to forfeiture of their right to transact business in Texas. Please contact the reporting entity to resolve this issue. (Texas Tax Code Section 171.1014)

If the entity's right to transact business in Texas is forfeited:

- the entity's status will be shown as "right to transact business forfeited" on the Comptroller's public website at <https://ourcpa.cpa.state.tx.us/coa/>; and
- the entity will be denied the right to sue or defend in a Texas court (except for the right to defend in a suit to terminate the entity's registration with the Texas Secretary of State); and
- each officer, director, partner, member or owner is liable for the debts of the entity (including taxes, penalties and interest) that are created or incurred after the due date of the report and before the privileges are revived. (Texas Tax Code Sections 171.252, 171.253, 171.254 and 171.255)

See the back of this notice for information about electronic reporting, ending the franchise tax responsibility of the entity, collection actions we may take and confirming the account status of the entity.

▼ If you are not required to pay electronically, you can return the bottom portion of this notice with your mailed payment. ▼

Notice of Intent to Forfeit Right to Transact Business

If you have completed filing requirements, your account may not have updated prior to the mailing of this notice.

File and pay electronically. You will need the number beginning with XT, printed at the top on the front of this notice. Go to www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/file-pay/ to file electronically.

We may contact you. Even though you have 45 days from the mailing date of this notice to resolve problems with the account before the right to transact business is forfeited, your franchise tax account is not current, and you may be contacted by a Comptroller employee about the delinquency.

Get information and forms you need. Go to www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/franchise/. For assistance, call 1-800-252-1381.

Penalty calculations. Penalties can include late filing penalties, late payment or electronic payment penalties, determination penalties, and lien or vendor fees.

Confirm your account status. You can verify your account status online at <https://ourcpa.cpa.state.tx.us/coa/>.
