Dear Business Manager:

Our records indicate that most business managers are unaware of the vast sources of Federal grants and loans available to all U.S. taxpayers. The Federal government has designed a large number of monetary programs in order to provide businesses and individuals with access to capital funds. There are currently hundreds of Federal programs offering billions of unclaimed dollars in free monetary grants as well as low interest non-secured loans. The function of the Monetary Information Service is to disseminate authentic information to the public in order to assist individuals in obtaining capital resources to further their economic development. For your convenience, this service has made available for retail sale a complete guide, providing direct access to all sources of Federal grants and loans called: The Catalog of Federal Grants and Loans. The National Monetary Information Service is a self-supporting non-governmental entity, which does not receive appropriated governmental funds and consequently must charge a nominal fee for this valuable information. Therefore, in order to take advantage of free governmental grants and low interest non-secured loans, please respond to the order form below.

PLEASE RESPOND TODAY TO THE ENCLOSED!
